

Chinese Diagnosis - Skin & Body Analysis

International Dermal Institute (IDI)

COURSE OUTLINE

Go beyond traditional skin analysis in this class where each skin condition is a reflection of the whole body and its well-being. Expand your understanding of the skin/organ connection for a smarter product prescription and a correctly customized treatment to deliver the desired results to your client.

INSTRUCTOR

Paula Hogan holds qualifications from BATAC and internationally recognized certificates in Reflexology and Aromatherapy. Her passion for learning has taken her from working in a renowned health spa in England to traveling throughout the world on major cruise ships. She joined the International Dermal Institute in 1999 teaching advanced skin and body techniques throughout Canada. Her current role within the company is as a Senior Instructor lecturing at trade shows and locations throughout the country as well as overseeing the training and development of new staff members.
